

Gods, men and angels – other than these was he,
My Emperor was superior in both the worlds.

When the Eye was opened, in this man-body God appeared,
And o Lord, my idea of him was changed – he was found to be something else.

In all glory was God there in him, and in all finality he appeared in God.
My Master was not separate from Him, He was not different from my Master.
Saturated in oneness, through the great love –
God was enchanted with him, and so was he with God.

He is the permanence in the body, mind and world,
Throughout this dissolving sphere he remains the Unchangeable Permanence.

Come whilst at Satsang let us drink in the oneness through his eyes,
Who knows when the doomsday may come, with the consequences thereof.
